

MARK FOLEY JOINS UNIVERSAL COMMUNICATIONS GROUP BOARD

Leading broadband services delivery contractor Universal Communications Group Limited (UCG), announced that Mr Mark Foley has joined the Board as a non-executive Director, effective 14 March 2016.

Mr Foley has over 20 years' experience in senior management including as CEO/Managing Director of ASX publicly listed Broadcast Services Australia Ltd (BSA), Director of Brumby's Bakeries Holdings Ltd., non-executive Chairman of Utility Services Group Limited and non-executive Director and CEO for charity organisation Youngcare.

At BSA Mark was instrumental in expanding the business through diversification, successfully taking it from a $50m turnover to a $480m turnover organisation. At Brumby's, Mark worked with management to substantially grow the business and then stepped down when the business was sold to the Retail Food Group. Mark has also personally established and developed a number of successful businesses within the electrical, satellite and property development sectors within Australia.

Mark is also currently Chief Operations Manager for the FKG Group.

Commenting on Mr Foley's appointment, UCG Chairman Professor Iain Morrison said "Mark's experience working within publicly listed and private entities has equipped him with a unique business perspective, and the skills and vision to transition businesses into large scale companies through diversification. UCG is delighted to have someone of Mark's calibre on the Board".
